

PROGRAM

Seminar and Book Launch

The International Criminal Court and Africa: One Decade On

26 October 2016

Hilton, The Hague

15.00- 20.45 hours

| | |
|----------------------|----------------|
| 15.00 - 16.30 | Opening |
|----------------------|----------------|

Chair: H.E. Paul Wilke

Netherlands Ambassador to the ICC and OPCW

Welcome

Evelyn A. Ankumah

Executive Director, Africa Legal Aid

The Importance of (Academic) Literature for International Justice

Professor Chris Maina Peter

Professor of Law, School of Law, University of Dar es Salaam, Member of the United Nations International Law Commission

Fighting Impunity: African States and the International Criminal Court

H.E. Judge Sanji Monageng

Judge of the International Criminal Court (ICC)

The Rome Statute and Universal Human Rights

H.E. Fatou Bensouda

Prosecutor, International Criminal Court (ICC)

Keynote: Challenging the Culture of Impunity

Floor Discussion

16.30- 17.00

Coffee/Tea Break

| | |
|---------------------|--|
| 17.00- 18.15 | Some Topical and Undertreated Aspects of International Criminal Justice |
|---------------------|--|

Chair: H.E. Judge Geoffrey Henderson
Judge of the International Criminal Court

Brigid Inder, OBE
Executive Director, Women's Initiatives for Gender Justice
Transforming Legal Concepts and Gender Perceptions

Manuel Ventura
Director, Peace and Justice Initiative, The Hague; Adjunct Fellow at University of Western Sydney
Universal Jurisdiction, African Perceptions of the International Criminal Court and the new AU Protocol on Amendments to the Protocol on the Statute of the African Court of Justice and Human Rights

Lorraine Smith van-Lin
International Criminal Law Expert, Former International Bar Association Program Director on ICC
When we do not Speak the Same Language: The Challenges of Multilingual Justice at the ICC

Floor Discussion

18.15 - 18.45 H.E. Bert Koenders, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of The Netherlands (Invited)
BOOK LAUNCH
Evelyn A. Ankumah(ed), The International Criminal Court and Africa: One Decade On, September 2016 xxxviii+676pages Intersentia, Cambridge - Antwerp - Portland.

18.45 - 20.45 NETWORKING RECEPTION