In Memory of Joan Kagezi

Joan Kagezi, Lead Prosecutor of the International Crimes Division of the High Court of Uganda

On April 1, at the International Legal Capital, The Hague, Africa Legal Aid (AFLA) convened a meeting entitled Informal Reception on Kampala Amendments on the Crime of Aggression: Has Africa Lost its Voice? The purpose was to Promote ratification of the Kampala Amendments on the Crime of Aggression. The meeting sadly coincided with the tragic death of Joan Kagezi, Lead Prosecutor of the International Crimes Division of the High Court of Uganda. Kagezi was prosecuting some of the high profile international crimes cases, including terrorism, in Uganda. She was shot dead on her way from work. It is believed she was assassinated due to her work in bringing perpetrators to justice. An Attack on Justice!

Ambassador Mirjam Blaak, Uganda's Ambassador to the Benelux

Evelyn A. Ankumah, Executive Director of Africa Legal Aid

AFLA dedicated its gathering to the memory and work of Joan Kagezi. Ambassador Mirjam Blaak, Uganda's Ambassador to the Benelux and a member of AFLA's Governing Council asked participants to observe a minute's silence for her fallen compatriot.
